PUBLIC NOTICE

On prevention and control of the risk of Covid 19 to the children in Child Care Institutions, the Hon'ble Supreme court in order dated 03.04.2020 in Suo Motu Writ Petition (Civil) No.4 of 2020 has issued detailed guidelines listing number of actionable points to be followed by various duty holders such as Juvenile Justice Boards, district Child Welfare Committees, managers of Child Care Institutions (CCIs) etc.

In order to put into effect control measures on prevention and remedy, the Department of Women and Child Development, Government of NCT of Delhi has been issuing from time to time guidelines for the CCIs, copies of which are available on the department's website at the <http://www.wcddel.in/>. Further, district level committees have been constituted to check on compliance of guidelines.

The Juvenile Justice Committee constituted of the Hon'ble Judges of Delhi High Court have also reviewed in detail the implementation of the said orders of the Apex Court in meeting conducted through video conferencing on 07th April 2020 and 13th April 2020 with all duty holders.

In order to address any issues related to Covid 19 in management of CCIs, a central Covid 19 cell has been set up at the headquarters of this department. This cell can be approached either by email at the icps.cpudel@gmail.com or over phone to Ms. Namrata Biruly, Asst. Director(ICPS) (Mobile No:-9910013417) and Ms. Abhisarika Rai (Mobile No:-9911813487). Any CCIs specially those managed by the NGOs may approach the cell for assistance and guidance. It is further advised that for any updates which are of interest to CCIs they can visit the website of Department of WCD.
